Shashibhushan Pahari Seva Kendra, Kolkata

Shashibhushan Pahari Seva Kendra, Kolkata, organized a Plantation Drive to inspire collective responsibility towards nature and promote sustainable living. The initiative encourages community members to actively contribute to creating a greener, cleaner, and healthier environment for the future generations. Through this effort, the Kendra reaffirms its commitment to environmental care and building a harmonious bond between people and nature.

On 14 September 2025, the Certification ceremony was successfully conducted with 197 participants. These children had been involved with us for the past one year through dance and drawing classes every Sunday. Certificates were awarded to eligible candidates, recognizing their hard work and dedication. The event boosted participants' confidence and sense of achievement, motivating them for future endeavors.
